

5 YEAR WARRANTY FOR WHARINGTON SUSTAINABLE FURNITURE™

In addition to such other warranties, conditions and undertakings which the Company may from time to time be required to provide under the laws of the Commonwealth of Australia and the States and Territories thereof, your Wharington International Product is protected within Australia by the following warranty.

Wharington International Pty. Ltd. ("the Company") warrants that all precautions which are usual and reasonable have been taken to ensure the quality of materials and workmanship in its products.

Should any defect or fault occur in any part of the product (except as herein after specifically excluded) within five (5) years of such first delivery and upon examination by the Company, or one of its authorised distributors or dealers, such defect or fault be found to be due to defective material or workmanship, the Company undertakes to repair or exchange or to have repaired or exchanged, such defective or faulty part or parts free of charge. This warranty is given on condition that the furniture is at all times properly used. This warranty shall exist for the benefit of any owner of the furniture during the aforesaid period of five (5) years respectively, after the date of the first delivery of the furniture, parts and or accessories.

The foregoing warranty does not cover fabric, defects or faults caused by wear and tear resulting from regular usage; misuse or neglect; and shall not apply to goods which have been altered without the Company's approval or to furniture which has been let out on hire or to parts on which identification numbers or marks have been altered or defaced.

Any transport costs incurred in regards to the defective/faulty products to or from the Company or authorised distributors or dealers are to be met by the purchaser.

The Company's liability in all other circumstances shall, whenever permitted by law, be limited to the repair or replacement of any defect or faulty part or parts or the payment of the costs of any such repair or replacement as the Company, in its sole discretion, determines to be appropriate.

All claims against the foregoing warranty shall only be made by presenting the furniture with a written request to the Company or to one of the Company's authorised distributors, that includes the serial number(s) and purchase details of the furniture.

In all countries, other than Australia, defective parts will be repaired or replaced in accordance with the terms and limitations of any applicable warranty for new Wharington International furniture in effect at that time in those countries.
